Speights Original £5.50

Tucked away in a lush floral garden in Northowram, next to the rolling hills of Shibden Valley is Peter Speight's shed. The shed houses the Speight's family run distillery where an elegant copper pot still produces small batches day in and day out. The signature gin features 12 botanicals chosen for their fragrant and summer feeling, which produces an outstandingly smooth and flavoursome dry gin

Speights Rhubarb £5.50

Flavoured by locally grown rhubarb, which is placed in to a traditional fruit press to extract the juice and blend with our original dry gin. This process produces an alluring pink gin that is voluptuous on the palate, with a sweet and tangy rhubarb explosion

Speights Huckleberry £5.50

A blend of bilberries and blueberries which creates an explosion of flavours

Speights Bilberry £5.50

Distilled in a traditional copper still, allowing the Bilberries to gently infuse and combine with the botanicals, Peter's Bilberry gin has a tantalising, soft, fruity flavour

Speights Pear £5.50

The latest gin from Speight's has taken 18 months to perfect. Distilled using Williams pears, vanilla, mango and banana, Speight's Pear Gin is delicate, smooth and sweet. Best served with a light or Mediterranean tonic.

Whitby Gin £6.80

Well balanced spice and sweetness from the juniper and citrus, with savoury hints coming through cleanly from the kelp and heather tip.

FLAVOURED GIN 25ml

Black Tomato £6.50

Herbaceous at first, before the delicate vegetal sweetness of tomato and berries builds and builds. Flakes of sea salt develop on the mid-palate before a long and crisp finish

Boë Violet £5.80

A delightful floral aroma of violets lead to a burst of apple and lavender. It's well-rounded and fruity gin

Boë Passion Fruit £5.80

Filled with orange peel, angelica and a zesty kick of passion fruit. Subtle herby mint and black pepper balances the sweetness

Boë Scottish £5.80

Named after and inspired by Franz de la Boë who first created gin back in 1658 (originally intended as a medicine, not a delicious libation). Not only does this edition have an ABV of 41.5%, it's also a new recipe featuring some different botanicals, resulting in a vibrant flavour profile

Boë Peach and Hibiscus £5.80

Violet petals, juicy plum and a hint of coriander leaf. Underlying notes of juniper and melon develop

Boë Scottish Bramble £5.80

Sweet raspberries and blackberries, with light touches of iris and black pepper.

Edinburgh Plum and Vanilla £5.70

Crushed almond, stone fruit, custard cream biscuits and a hint of flower petal

Edinburgh Raspberry £5.70

A tasty raspberry-flavoured gin liqueur made in Edinburgh using Scottish juniper, and other botanicals. With an infusion of delicious, crisp Scottish raspberries

Chilton Damson £5.10

Prune and plumb make a fruity and sweet gin

Cubical Mango Gin £5.80

Marries juniper, bergamot, sweet orange and of course mango, all of which are triple distilled. The colour (and taste) should make for some fun fruity cocktails. On the palate, citrus notes balance out dominant tropical mango sweetness, with a gentle herbaceous undertone.
