

The Piece Hall, Halifax (HX1 1RE) H/A/D
A unique Grade I Listed former cloth trading arena dating from 1779. Originally built to support the trading of “pieces” of cloth, it has been at the heart of commercial, civic, and cultural life in the town ever since. A £16 million transformation in 2016 created a world-class visitor destination and entertainment venue.

Shibden Hall, Halifax (HX3 6XG) H/W/D/F
Home of the noted 19th century diarist Anne Lister. The hall dates from 1420 and is set amid 80 acres of public parkland with a boating lake and miniature railway. Dogs welcome in the park. Film location for the BBC's Gentleman Jack. We recommend you visit Halifax Minster (HX1 1QL) for Lister's burial tombstone and baptism font.

Calderdale Industrial Museum, Halifax (HX1 1QG) H/A
Chart the power journey from the water wheel to the internal combustion engine, by way of steam and electricity. See displays from world-famous Halifax names such as Mackintosh's Toffees and Crossley's carpets.

Dean Clough Galleries and Mills, Halifax (HX3 5AX) H/A
A nationally renowned centre for business and the arts on a landmark site. Once the world's largest carpet factory, now home to one of the UK's most active private art galleries, and Northern Broadside Theatre.

The Square Chapel, Halifax (HX1 1QG) H/A
A thriving centre for the arts and a performance venue showcasing the best in live music, theatre, dance, comedy, family shows, cinema and musicals in a unique setting.

Wainhouse Tower, Halifax (HX1 3JF) H
A 253ft tower originally commissioned as a chimney for the local dye works in the late 19th century. Never actually used as a working chimney it is regarded by many as one of Britain's finest follies. Open on Bank Holidays.

Ogden Water Country Park, Halifax (HX2 8XZ) W/D
A 60-hectare area of mixed woodland and reservoir with walking routes and path suitable for wheelchair use. Dogs are welcome on the lead around the reservoir.

Bankfield Museum, Halifax (HX3 6HG) H/A
A Museum since 1887, Bankfield tells the story of Halifax and Calderdale. It is set in a Victorian mansion that was the home of local mill owner, philanthropist and MP, Colonel Edward Akroyd. Bankfield's exhibitions cover local history, costume, art, toys, military history, jewellery and textiles from around the world.

Cragg Vale Coiners Country, Mytholmroyd (HX7 5DS) F/H/W/D
Enjoy a 5.5-mile walk around Mytholmroyd and Cragg Vale. Mapped by cartographer Christopher Goddard, this challenging walk takes in the key locations featured in the Walter Scott prize-winning novel The Gallow's Pole by Benjamin Myers, along with Shane Meadows' TV series of the same name.

Keighley & Worth Valley Railway, Oxenhope (BD22 9LB) F/H/D
A compact 5-mile track with several steam locomotives and five stations, the nearest to the hotel being Oxenhope. Film location for The Railway Children and The Railway Children Return.

Gibson Mill & Hardcastle Craggs Hebden Bridge (HX7 7AP) W/H/D
One of the first mills of the Industrial Revolution, now owned by The National Trust. The mill is set in a woodland valley and was driven by a water wheel to produce cotton cloth up until 1890.

Brontë Parsonage Museum, Haworth (BD22 8DR) B/H/F/A
Former home of literary sisters Charlotte, Emily and Anne Brontë, where many of the world famous novels were written. See their living quarters, clothes and artifacts including Anne Brontë's writing slope, plus the magnificent diaries, drawings and paintings from the sisters and their brother Branwell. Film location for The Railway Children Return

Salts Mill, Saltaire (BD18 3LA) H/A
A former textile mill set in the UNESCO World Heritage Site. Salts Mill is home to one of the world's largest collections of David Hockney art, a model Italianate village, book shop, home store, restaurant, antique centre as well as gallery showing the story of Sir Titus Salt and the unique history of the mill.

Yorkshire Sculpture Park, West Bretton (WF4 4LG) W/A/D
A centre of international and national importance for the production, exhibition and appreciation of modern and contemporary sculpture. Five indoor galleries set in 500 acres of tranquil countryside, free entry. Dogs welcome in the park.

Hepworth Gallery, Wakefield (WF1 5AW) A
Over 1,600 square metres of light-filled gallery spaces, this is the largest purpose-built exhibition space outside London bringing together exhibitions by contemporary artists and rarely seen works by Barbara Hepworth.

Fountains Abbey, Ripon (HG4 3DY) W/H/D
Fountains Abbey is considered the gateway to the Yorkshire Dales. It is one of the largest and best preserved Cistercian monastery ruins in England.

F - Film location
H - Heritage interest
B - Brontë connection
D - Dogs welcome on the lead
W - Walks / trails
A - Arts & cultural attraction

HERITAGE ARTS & LANDSCAPES

HOLDSWORTH HOUSE
HOTEL & RESTAURANT

THE LAKE
DISTRICT

BRONTE
COUNTRY

Bronte
Parsonage
Museum

Keighley & Worth Valley Railway

THE YORKSHIRE DALES

YORK

SALTS
Mill

Harewood House

Bankfield Museum

LEEDS

MANCHESTER

HOLDSWORTH HOUSE

Anne Lister's Shibden Hall

The Pennine Way

Hebden Bridge
& Hardcastle Crags

Wainhouse Tower

The Calder River

The Hepworth Gallery

Cragg Vale

The Piece Hall

WAKEFIELD

Calderdale
Industrial Museum

Halifax Minster

Yorkshire
Sculpture Park

THE PEAK DISTRICT