10.1.4 not act in an improper or disorderly way, nor refuse to comply with reasonable requests from the Hotel staff;

10.1.5 make every effort to safeguard the existing fixtures, fittings and decorations. 12.5 The Hotel reserves the right to increase its prices to take account of any increases in inflation, VAT, labour, wages, materials, suppliers' costs, investment or other costs incurred by the Hotel. Any increases after the date of the booking will be notified to the Client in writing and will be payable by the Client in substitution for the amounts originally notified by the Hotel and the Client agrees that this will constitute a variation of the terms of the Contract accordingly.

12.6 Should the Client make significant changes to the programme or the expected number of guests, this may result in amendments to the applicable rates and or/the facilities offered by the Hotel.

12.7 A payment schedule will be issued upon confirmation of the event booking, outlining the payment terms applicable to the event. In the absence of a bespoke schedule, the following default payment structure will apply: 1) A pro forma invoice will be issued by the Hotel twelve months prior to the date of the Event based on the figures provided in the Contract: 25% of the outstanding balance (i.e. the total event value less any deposit paid) will be payable by return; 2) A second pro forma invoice will be issued nine months prior to the Event: 25% of the outstanding balance will be payable by return; 3) A third pro forma invoice will be issued six months prior to the Event: 25% of the outstanding balance will be payable by return; 4) A fourth pro forma invoice will be issued four months prior to the Event: 20% of the outstanding balance will be payable by return; A final invoice for the remaining balance, based on numbers known at that date, will be issued three weeks before the Event. An optional 10% service charge will be added to the food and beverage element of this bill.

Example of payment terms:

If the total Event value is £10,000, the Client will pay a £2,000 non-refundable, non-transferable deposit at the time of booking. The remaining balance is £8,000.

Example payment schedule:

- 12 months prior to the Event: £2,000 (25% of £8,000)
- 9 months prior to the Event: £2,000 (25% of £8,000)
- 6 months prior to the Event: £2,000 (25% of £8,000)
- 4 months prior to the Event: £1,600 (20% of £8,000)
- 3 weeks prior to the Event: £400 (final balance, subject to adjustments based on guest numbers, menu changes, etc.)

12.8 Any outstanding balance, including any additional guests over and above the third pro forma invoice numbers must be settled by the Client on departure.

12.9 Payments should be made by the due dates on the invoices. Should payments become overdue the Hotel reserves the right to charge a late payment charge of 10% of the outstanding balance to the Client's account.

13 CANCELLATION

13.1 In the event of cancellation by the Client, the following charges will apply. These cancellation charges represent a genuine pre-estimate of loss incurred by the Hotel and consider costs already committed, planning undertaken, and the reduced ability to resell the date to other clients (this list is not exhaustive of reasons). The percentages are calculated on the total contractual amount excluding the initial non-refundable, non-transferable deposit:

13.1.1 between 271–360 days before the Event date, 25% of the remaining contractual amount will be charged;
13.1.2 between 181–270 days before the Event date, 50% of the remaining contractual amount will be charged;
13.1.3 between 121–180 days before the Event date, 75% of the remaining contractual amount will be charged;
13.1.4 between 61–120 days before the Event date, 95% of the remaining contractual amount will be charged;
13.1.5 within 60 days of the Event date, 100% of the remaining contractual amount will be charged.

Example of Cancellation Charges:

If the total cost of the Event is £10,000, the Client will have paid a £2,000 non-refundable, non-transferable deposit at the time of booking. The remaining balance is £8,000. If the Client cancels:

- Between 271–360 days before the Event: 25% of £8,000 (£2,000) is payable, in addition to the £2,000 deposit already retained;
- Between 181–270 days before the Event: 50% of £8,000 (£4,000) is payable, in addition to the £2,000 deposit already retained;
- Between 121–180 days before the Event: 75% of £8,000 (£6,000) is payable, in addition to the £2,000 deposit already retained;
- Between 61–120 days before the Event: 95% of £8,000 (£7,600) is payable, in addition to the £2,000 deposit already retained;
- Within 60 days of the Event: 100% of £8,000 (£8,000) is payable, in addition to the £2,000 deposit already retained.

continued...

13.2 The Client's deposit is non-refundable and non-transferable and should be claimed back on your wedding insurance.

13.3 Any cancellation, postponement or partial cancellation should be advised to the management of the Hotel in writing by the Client, in the first instance.

13.4 The Hotel may, at its absolute discretion, endeavour to mitigate any losses which it may incur as a result of the Client's cancellation of the booking by, amongst other things, advertising the availability of the Facilities on the scheduled date(s) for which the booking had been made. Part or all of the profit (if any) which the Hotel has been able to make through other clients' use of the Facilities on the scheduled date(s) on which the booking had been made will be retained by the hotel in full.

13.5 In addition to paying the cancellation charges the Client shall indemnify the Hotel for any costs or expenses incurred to third parties by reason of any arrangements made with such third parties in respect of the Event.

13.6 If the Event is postponed by the Client, the Hotel will endeavour to make alternative arrangements with the Client for the Event at the venue on an alternative date ("Alternative Event") provided always that the Alternative Event shall be subject to availability and shall take place within six months of the date of the postponed Event.

13.7 Where no Alternative Event is arranged within six months of the date of the original Event, the Hotel reserves the right to treat the Event as cancelled.

13.8 The Hotel reserves the right, without prejudice, to any other right or remedy available, to terminate or suspend any Contract forthwith or, at its discretion, offer alternative facilities without any further responsibility on its part in the Event if:

13.8.1 any part of the Hotel is closed due to fire or water damage or due to alterations or redecoration or any occurrence beyond the Hotel's control which shall prevent it from performing its obligations in connection with the Event;

13.8.2 there is a failure to supply the Hotel with any essential services such as gas, electricity or water;

13.8.3 if the booking might, in the Hotel's opinion prejudice its reputation;

13.8.4 if the Client is more than 21 days in arrears of payment to the Hotel;

13.8.5 if the Client becomes bankrupt or makes any voluntary arrangement with its creditors or becomes subject to an administration order or an encumbrancer takes possession of, or a receiver is appointed of any of the Client's property or assets.

13.9 In the event of termination or suspension, the price for any Facilities that the Hotel has provided to the Client shall become immediately due.

13.10 Should the Hotel, for reasons beyond its control, need to cancel or make any amendments to the Event, the Hotel reserves the right to offer an alternative choice of facilities.

14 THE HOTEL'S LIABILITY

14.1 The Hotel makes no representations and gives no warranties, statutory, implied or other as to the Facilities or as to their suitability for any particular or general purpose.

14.2 Subject to Clause 14.3 the Hotel shall not be liable for:

14.2.1 any loss of profit or other financial loss or for any indirect, special or consequential loss, damage, liability, costs or claims (whether arising out of the negligence of the Hotel or its employees, servants or agents) suffered, incurred or made by the Client in connection with the Event (including, without limitation, arising by reason of any delay or interruption in the provision of the Facilities);

14.2.2 and any loss or damage to any property of the Client's, their guests, contractors or agents, or any of their employees occurring at the Hotel.

14.3 Other than for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the Hotel, without limiting the effect of the provisions of this Clause 14 the Hotel's aggregate liability to the Client for loss and damage under or in connection with the Contract shall in no event exceed the aggregate contract price paid and/or payable by the Client to the Hotel in respect of the Event.

14.4 Nothing in this Contract is intended to affect any statutory rights which the Client may have (whether in their capacity as a consumer for the purposes of the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977 or otherwise) which may not lawfully be excluded by the Hotel and, in the event that any of the provisions of the Contract are adjudged to be unlawful and/or to be void as going beyond what is reasonable in all the circumstances for the protection of the interests of the Hotel, such unlawful and/or void provision(s) shall be deemed to be deleted and the remaining provisions of the Contract shall continue to apply.
